Bravo

Message from President CEO, Karen J Martinez

In 1997, BRAVO!

launched as a new and innovative company that could revolutionize the way janitorial services were contracted. It was evident within the facility support services industry that customers needed to be educated and janitorial specifications needed to be reengineered. As a result, we built the foundation of our company on the simple yet dependable words, "Do what you say you're going to do." These words have remained embedded in our BRAVO! fabric, and today, it is what inspires us to Read more...
